Dear Parents/Carers,

Learning Conference Targets

Today we have sent home your child's targets that will be set for your child in advance of the learning conferences that are coming up next week. We hope that by doing this, you are well prepared to ask any questions you may have regarding the next step targets.

The targets have been set by class teachers following ongoing assessment and are designed to move your child's learning forward. These targets will then be reviewed at the next learning conference in the spring term.

Your sincerely,
